Living Sky School Division Appoints New Director of Education/CEO

The Living Sky School Division Board of Education is pleased to announce the appointment of Brenda Vickers to the position of Director of Education/CEO effective August 1, 2017. Brenda has served in the role of Superintendent of Human Resources with Living Sky School Division for the past six years. Prior to coming to Living Sky, Brenda served as a human resource manager as well as principal and teacher in rural and urban schools.

“Brenda has proven herself as an influential leader who has focused on the development of leadership throughout the organization while supporting student well-being and achievement,” said Board Chair Ronna Pethick. “The Board of Education is excited to begin working with Brenda in her new role as Director of Education.”

Brenda began her studies in Education at the University of Saskatchewan from where she was graduated with a Bachelor of Education with Great Distinction. Later in her career, she earned a Master of Education in Educational Administration and a Master’s Certificate in Human Resources Administration in Education from the University of Regina. Brenda’s impressive educational background along with her extensive experience and commitment to the Board’s values and beliefs make her a perfect fit for this position.

As Director of Education, Brenda will be committed to building a system that has a well-developed plan that is clear to everyone and to making certain that all employees know that they play a part in accomplishing the Division’s goals. She believes in helping our students become stronger academically, socially, and emotionally. Ms. Vickers stated, “I’m absolutely honoured and excited to be able to work with the Board and the entire staff of Living Sky School Division. We’ll continue to do our very best for students.”

We would like to congratulate Brenda on her appointment to Director of Education/CEO and look forward to joining her in fostering a collaborative culture focused on student learning.

Living Sky School Division is situated in Northwest Central Saskatchewan. It encompasses a wide geographic area including the Battlefords, many communities, villages, First Nation communities and Hutterite colonies. Currently, twenty-nine schools are located in eighteen communities. Our schools include PreK-12, elementary, high schools and alternate schools with a student population of approximately 5,700 students.
