Director of Education Departure Announcement

The Living Sky School Division Board of Education and Director of Education, Mr. Dave Hutchinson, have reached agreement to part ways. The Board of Education and Mr. Hutchinson have agreed that this amicable parting is the best option at this time. The Board would like to thank Mr. Hutchinson for his hard work and his contributions to the Division and wish him all the best in his future undertakings.

A Director search will commence shortly. The Board is pleased to announce that Randy Fox will be the interim Director of Education until such time as the search process is complete. Mr. Fox is returning from his recent retirement and bringing with him a wealth of knowledge and leadership. The Board looks forward to working through this transition period with Mr. Fox and to maintaining the excellent working relationships with staff and other education stakeholders.
